The DIMMER VIEW

Yorty—An Unusual Candidate

Los Angeles Mayor Sam Yorty has speechmaking class. That's a lot more than can be said for some of the candidates seeking to be president of these United States.

Mayor Sam recently appeared at a San Diego news conference, and as usual, he made a fine impression with his mental and vocal agility.

Yorty's press conferences are always well attended because he usually produces something newsworthy and he is always highly entertaining. Even those who suggest that he doesn't always relate the complete truth are quick to admit he tells what he tells convincingly.

An example of his political expertise was his reply to a question by a teevie reporter:

"Mayor Sam, you have the reputation of being a maverick. If you are elected president, will you carry that characteristic with you?"

The mayor didn't answer with a "yes" or "no" as most politicians would. He milked the question for all it was worth.

"Do you fellows know where the word maverick came from," was his reply. He didn't wait for an answer. Instead, he said:

"When this great country was developing to the west, and Texas was becoming a cattle country, Texas cattlemen turned their animals out on the common range because of the high cost of fencing Texas' vast areas.

"To identify their animals, cattlemen decided to brand them. All agreed except one man whose name was Maverick.

"At roundup time they recognized various markings such as Smith's mark, Robert's mark, and Foster's. But some were unmarked. These were said to be Maverick's.

"Isn't that interesting," Mayor Sam said looking over the assembled reporters.

Again awaiting no answer, he made his political point.

"I guess they'll call me a maverick. Nobody puts a brand on me!"

Not many politicians can make that much hay out of a question.

By his answer he insinuated high quality of character into the minds of those who heard what he said — if they believe it.

No matter—he does sound convincing!

Sups Re-District Stands As Court Rejects Writ

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — Superior Court Judge Robert O. Staniforth on Friday refused to issue a writ which would have compelled the County Board of Supervisors to use pre-1965 district lines in the coming election.

The writ was simply an order for the board to act upon the previous judgement of Judge Staniforth calling for a redistricting that shifted as few voters as possible from one district to another.

Judge Staniforth's order was appealed by the supervisors to the Fourth District Court of Appeals which had the effect of staying the judgement.

This means that unless an order is received from a higher court than Superior the June primary will be along the lines of the new districts.

The attorney for the plaintiffs indicated he will go directly to the state Supreme Court. There is no way of telling what the court's reaction would be.

The suit was filed on behalf

Duffy Named To Criminal Justice Post

John F. Duffy, Sheriff of San Diego County, will serve on the detection and apprehension of criminals task force on the California Council on Criminal Justice.

The appointment was announced by Atty. Gen. Evelle J. Younger, who serves as chairman of the CCCJ, the state's agency for criminal justice planning and coordination.

As a member of the Task Force on Improvement of Detection and Apprehension of Criminals, Sheriff Duffy will assist CCCJ in its planning efforts in this field, including review of specific project applications under the federal Omnibus Crime Control Act.

Sheriff Duffy, who was elected county sheriff in 1970, joined the department in 1953 as a deputy sheriff. He is currently vice president of the California Peace Officers' Association. His civic affiliations include Boys' Club of Vista, National Council on Alcoholism, Kiwanis Club, and Elks.

Sup'visors Boost Own Pay 63%

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — The County Board of Supervisors gave themselves a salary increase that could reach to some $26,000 by January of 1976 — a raise of 63%.

Supervisor Henry A. Boney said the ordinance included some things that he had not intended as presented earlier. He said he did not vote for a continuing raise of $1,000 a year for the following three years.

In addition, the board members and other elected officials will get a cost of living index increase each July 1, starting in 1973. This could add $1,000 to the members' salaries by 1976, Boney said, making the raise $10,000 above the present $16,000 salary.

Treasurer Delevan Dickson, Recorder Harvey Bloom and Tax Collector James Jones did not share in the supervisors' largess. They got no raise.

Schools To Be Topic Of Women Voters

Schools, school policies, and responsibilities will be the subject of unit meetings of the Grossmont-Cajon Valley League of Women Voters, which will be underway next week.

Carnival Added To OTDays Gala

A Gay 90's carnival will be an added attraction to the annual Lemon Grove Old Time Days celebration to be held this year in May.

The carnival, jointly sponsored by the OTD Assn. and the L.G. Chamber of Commerce will run May 10-14, ending on the same day the OTD parade is held.

As many as 20 rides and many exciting booths for games and contests will be operated by local clubs, PTAs and church groups. Proceeds will be divided between OTD, CoC, and sponsoring organizations.

The parade, according to Bob Mastny, parade chairman, has already received applications from entries. Several bands are already scheduled. These include the Mt. Miguel High, Lemon Grove Junior High, Helix Pep Band, and the El Cajon Mardi Gras band.

This year, Mastny said, there will be 115 units including floats, clowns, antique cars, bands and other entertaining units. Floats will be judged on the application of the Gay 90's theme.

Interested groups are invited to attend the next meeting of the group at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the office of the L.G. Chamber of Commerce, 3415 Imperial ave.

Inquiries and applications for the parade should be addressed to Bob Mastny, 1601 Madera, Lemon Grove, 92045.

President of the OTD Association is Ivan E. McDermott.

Parent Training Teacher to Talk At L.M. Library

Noel Burch, principal of Murray Manor Elementary School and an instructor of parent effectiveness training, will speak on parent effectiveness training and lead an audience discussion February 9 at 9:30 a.m. in the Ben Polak Auditorium, 8053 University ave., La Mesa.

The program is the first of a series of morning sessions sponsored by the La Mesa Library. The other sessions will deal with "recipes to fix your husband's boss" Feb. 16 and "sitchery" March 1, as well as a film on "Amazing New Zealand" March 8.

While mothers with small children attend the program, a children's story hour will be presented in the library, which is adjacent to the Polak Auditorium. Registration in advance is necessary for the story hour.

Population Projection Is Planning Assoc. Problem

The executive committee of the Lemon Grove Planning Association met last Thursday afternoon and discussed tentative community goals, with a good portion of the 2-hour meeting spent discussing a projection of the population of the area and housing densities.

At a previous meeting of the executive committee January 20, goals from subcommittees were introduced and discussed, with last week's discussion aimed at revisions. A projected population of 35,000 was introduced with the residential subcommittee goals, but many in attendance

Ashcraft Strong In Assembly Race

About one third of the registered voters turned out Tuesday to decide who should contest for San Diego Mayor Pete Wilson's seat as representative of the 76th Assembly District.

Top vote getter in the four parties on the ballot were: Republican Jim Ashcraft, 14,512 votes; Democrat Bob Wilson, 5,344; American Independent Armin Moths, 784, and Peace and Freedom James Stronski, 455 votes. Ashcraft and Wilson are each 28 years old.

The election was called by Gov. Reagan in December after Pete Wilson resigned to assume the post of mayor here.

Other candidates: Republicans: R. E. Andreen, 1,577; D. Gallardo, 463; J. Hard'son, 884; Ardy's Heise, 3,211; Ray Hobgood, 454; Bud Porter, 5,690; John Rose, 1,160; Jim Snapp, 242, and A. L. Van Zanten, 1,268.

Democrats: Mike Armstrong, 870; Ralph D'Adamo, 1,615, and Dan Finnegan, 4,407.

The run-off will be on February 29.

LG Fire Report

On Jan. 25, at 6:18 a.m., Lemon Grove firemen responded to a call to Sweetwater and Broadway, where a car, owned by Jesse Jones, of Spring Valley, was afire, due to a flooded engine. Estimated loss was $100.

During the week, also, the department made two runs to the Lemon Grove Convalescent Hospital.

voiced disagreement, calling for a projected figure of closer to 30,000. While no action was taken to change the figure, more discussion is expected at the next meeting, due February 10 at 7:30 p.m. in the Lemon Grove Junior High School auditorium.

Other goals of the residential subcommittee include considering land near freeways for development of multiple dwellings where adaptable, and restrict about 20% of the population to multiple dwellings.

Another item in the residential goals which met with opposition was the concept of phasing out mobile home parks in the area. Mobile home parks, which often are populated with mostly retired persons, have a low population-per-dwelling unit figure, although a higher units-per-acre density. The residential subcommittee was called discriminatory against senior citizens by some in attendance.

Discussion of densities and types of housing developments was balanced by those who want single-family units and those who are in favor of multiple-dwelling units.

Single-family development advocates cited lower density as an advantage, while those favoring multiple-dwelling development indicated a broader tax base. Another advantage of multiple units in the form of apartments and condominiums is the fact that fewer children are generated for local schools. Presently, the Lemon Grove School District is operating at near-capacity.

After the population projection is agreed upon, the number of single-family acres and multiple-unit acres can be projected from existing undeveloped land and land which is expected to be upgraded and utilized more fully.

Additionally, the population projection must be determined in order that planners can determine the number of acres to be developed commercially and for parks and schools.

The Planning Association has set a tentative date of March 13 for the adoption of goals by the general membership. Further discussions and revisions where appropriate will be undertaken at the next meeting of the executive committee, February 10 at Lemon Grove Junior High. The meeting, beginning at 7:30 p.m., is open to the public.

Juanita Mengels, president of the Association, said the 60-member organization has been attempting to establish identity for their area and Summer explained a Senate bill which provides for advisory councils in unincorporated areas. Summer would urge supervisors to permit the formation of such council which would then advise supervisors on matters pertaining to public health, safety, public works, welfare and planning under Sect. 31010 subsection 1 of the State Code. The new laws goes into effect March 4, Summer said. Supervisors would form the Advisory Council by resolution and would be required to pay expenses of the Council when it is on official business.

Summer said that the bill would provide areas such as Casa de Oro with opportunities it sought and that he would get the matter on the Supervisors' agenda as soon as the bill became effective.

Dr. Frank Phillips, past president of the Association, was asked to form a 3-5 person committee to work out geographical committees.

Included in the sample were cars from all domestic and most foreign manufacturers. A 1940 Ford was the oldest car tested, and 55 1972 models went through the testing lanes. Among the 1972 cars, only one vehicle was unable to meet the emission level requirement, due to a broken distributor wire.

Mike Carlen to Head Lemon Grove Chamber

With Carlen were Donald Minnick, vice president; Al Woods, treasurer, and Gary Sweet, secretary.

General members elected as board members Bob Guest, president of U. S. National of Commerce Thursday at the bank; Dick Canfield, of Canfield Brakes; and Jim Thomas, Thomas Disposal.

Also: Mike Carlen, Joe Davy, Imperial Savings; Gary Sweet, Lincoln Finance; Dr. Jerry Legerton, optometrist; Joyce Foss, and Frenchy Faucher. The latter five were re-elected.

Holdovers include Jim Boyd, State Farm; Don Minnick, Rosemary Johnston, news reporter; Robert Russell, retiring president; Al Woods, Walley-Knutson, realtor; Louise Warren, Furniture store owner; Jim Dorman, attorney; Frank Shughrue, banker; Dr. Sam Smith, physician-surgeon; and Ed Looper, stationer.

New officers will have the responsibility of co-sponsoring a carnival in May just prior to Old Time Days celebrations. Booths at the carnival will be available to local service clubs and organizations, according to Jim Dorman, president of OTD Association.

Rita Wells, in charge of obtaining new members, reported that six new members had been signed during the reporting period. It brings the chamber membership total to 141. President Russell reported.

Newly elected chamber officers will be installed March 25 at VFW Hall in Lemon Grove. George Tonner, chairman said Jack Cruse, a chamber member and operator of Jack's Catering, would provide a prime rib dinner.

Tonner said that a mariachi group will supply entertainment during the dinner. Bob Mills, a channel 10 teevie personality, and Jim Hill, Charger's free safety and sportscaster on channel 10, will provide other entertainment.

Hearing Today On Imperial-80

By John Nicholson

Delay until the opposition breaks down.

That's what trustee Bert Cosby told Lemon Grove School District residents in attendance at a board meeting Jan. 21 may be the plan of attack for the Pacific Bay Development Company in seeking approval of large subdivision in the southwest corner of the district.

So far, that's the way it has been.

Each time the Imperial-80 project goes up for approval and local residents show up in protest, a continuance is asked by the developers or the San Diego City Council. The City Council must OK the project, as it is entirely within the San Diego City limits, although most youngsters from the housing project would attend Lemon Grove schools.

From the school district's standpoint, the development presents a problem, as Pacific Bay has repeatedly refused to provide temporary facilities for children from the proposed development by rejecting agreements with the district for financial aid.

The latest plan for the company was to seek approval only of that portion of the development which would lie outside the Lemon Grove School District. In this way, it was felt by residents that Pacific Bay was trying to get its foot in the door for further developments of the subdivision.

The concept was put to the City Council last Thursday, and as a small army of local protestors watched, the council continued the hearing until this morning.

The delay was probably helpful to the developers, who expect to see fewer protestors at this morning's hearing. The hearing was scheduled for 9:30 a.m. at City Hall, 202 'C' st.

Summer to Aid CdO Businesses

The Casa de Oro Business Association has asked supervisorial candidate Bill Summer to represent the group at the county board of supervisors for the formation of an official council.

Juanita Mengels, president of the Association, said the 60-member organization has been attempting to establish identity for their area and Summer explained a Senate bill which provides for advisory councils in unincorporated areas. Summer would urge supervisors to permit the formation of such council which would then advise supervisors on matters pertaining to public health, safety, public works, welfare and planning under Sect. 31010 subsection 1 of the State Code. The new laws goes into effect March 4, Summer said. Supervisors would form the Advisory Council by resolution and would be required to pay expenses of the Council when it is on official business.

Summer said that the bill would provide areas such as Casa de Oro with opportunities it sought and that he would get the matter on the Supervisors' agenda as soon as the bill became effective.

Dr. Frank Phillips, past president of the Association, was asked to form a 3-5 person committee to work out geographical committees.

The rocket derby consisted of heat eliminations in each den, with top rocketeers from each den competing with other den winners for pack honors.

Coming in second with his creation was Michael Johnson of Den 8. Over 45 rockets, constructed by cubs with help from their dads, were entered in the competition.

Den winners, in addition to Hoagland, were Bill Robbins, Bill Sharp, Eric Smith, Laurence Harowitz, Jaerry Harpeneau, and Robert Mundy.

The "showette" program, an annual affair with the group, is a series of short slide shows, each lasting between eight and 15 minutes.

This year's program will include: "Spring and Fall Color in the High Desert" by Harry and Elsie Gilham; "Canyonlands" by Herb and Esther Pollock; "Hawaii" by Helen and Bob Stinnett; and "Bunion Trail" by Fred and Rosanna Carnes.

There is no charge for admission to the program and the public is invited.

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

"Tuve" is an interesting word. It means "I had." We may use it in expressing actions which took place in the past. For example, we may say "Yo tuve mucho dinero." (I had a lot of money.), "Tuve algunos amigos." (I had some friends.) and "Tuve una oportunidad." (I had an opportunity.)

"Tuvo," pronounced "TOO-voh," also means "had." It may be used with the subjects "el" (he), "ella" (she), and "usted" (you). For example, we may say "El tuvo mucho éxito." (He had a lot of success.), "Ella tuvo una gran experiencia." (She had a great experience.) and "Usted tuvo buena suerte." (You had good luck.)

We may also use "tuvo" in the construction of questions by having it appear as the first word in a phrase. When this occurs, the English translation of the verb is changed slightly. This may be seen in the questions "Tuvo usted suficiente dinero?" (Did you have enough money?), "Tuvo ella una casa muy grande?" (Did she have a large house?), and "Tuvo el suficiente experiencia?" (Did he have enough experience?).

"Tuvimos" will be translated "we had." Sometimes the pronoun "nosotros" (we) appears with "tuvimos" as in "Nosotros tuvimos bastante tiempo." (We had plenty of time.) and "Nosotros tuvimos nuestros problemas." (We had our problems.) In everyday conversation "nosotros" is frequently dropped and "we" becomes the understood subject for "tuvimos." Examples of this are seen in "Tuvimos la luz prendida." (We had the light turned-on.) and "Tuvimos muchos amigos con nosotros." (We had many friends with us.)

"Tuvieron" is the way to say "they had." For example, we may say "Ellos tuvieron mucho trabajo." (They had a lot of work.) and "Ellos tuvieron que estudiar mucho." (They had to study a lot.)

BANKAMERICARD

BANK ACCOUNT — Seen at the Bank of America, Casa de Oro Branch, were children from two classrooms at Casa de Oro Elementary School in the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District. A first grade class taught by Miss Donna Fleming and a fourth-grade class taught by Mrs. Frances Johnson opened an account with the bank manager. The students, who amassed the "fortune," have good plans for its use. The money was earned through the sale of Christmas ornaments, tags, frogs and other decorating items. However, Casa de Oro School does not plan to profit from the "rich!" The two classes are really Murdock Elementary School students, temporarily housed at the school. When the new school opens, the students plan to buy educational items for the Murdock School Media Center.

Sixth Grade Students To Attend Camp

Sixth graders from throughout the county are attending classes out-of-doors as the City-County camp program takes 18,000 local youngsters to the mountains for a week's stay each year.

For four and one-half days the children live together in the friendly, relaxed atmosphere of the outdoors which provides a climate where friendships are made and respect for others developed.

The most exciting and important camp activity to the students is the work that is done to help the forest become a better place. Here they learn there's more to a forest than just trees; that the forest is a living community.

The youngsters help with the U. S. Forest Service insect control project which attempts to control the damage done by certain beetles that kill many trees in San Diego County.

The camping program, which has taken more than 300,000 San Diego County youths to the mountains in its 25 years of operation, is jointly funded by the City and County of San Diego and by participating school districts.

Next week, students from Casa de Oro School and the Dehesa School District will visit Palomar Mt. Camp. The week of February 14, Lemon Avenue and La Presa Schools will send youngsters to Camp Cuyamaca. The week of March 20, youngsters at Golden Avenue and Rios Schools take a trip to Camp Marston. Brier Patch, Parkview, and Dittmar Schools will send their sixth graders to Palomar Mt. Camp.

OPTIMIST DONATION — Peter C. Doyle, president of the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District Board of Education, extended a grateful handshake of thanks upon receipt of a gift of $200 from the La Mesa Optimist Club this past week.

The check, presented by club president Robert Ogden and member Gerald E. Woughter, will be used for the Campership Fund. The fund is set up to provide a week at camp for those students who are unable to furnish the necessary money to attend the Outdoor Education Program.

PTA Highlights

Mt. Miguel

The Mount Miguel PTA held a board meeting in December at the home of Mrs. Robert Updike. The meeting was a combined business meeting and Christmas party.

Mrs. Henry Reinecke conducted a short business meeting and then the Christmas festivities began with a "white elephant" gift exchange.

Refreshments included Christmas cookies representing different countries around the world. Contributions were made by board members to help needy families in the area.

The student body at Miguel is sponsoring a canned food drive to help the Indians near Ramona, and clothing and toys are also being collected. The ASB will hold a dance at the school and the admission will be a can of food.

Mt. Vernon

A student recognition day will feature a morning meeting of the Mt. Vernon Elementary PTA Feb. 10, at 9:30 a.m. in the school cafeteria.

Reading and math certificates will be distributed to students in each grade level at the meeting by Principal Wiley Cornelius. "Freedom of Choice" is the program's theme, according to chairman Vianne Erickson.

In addition, a movie, "Breath of Life," will be shown in conjunction with the upcoming summer backyard swim.

Because there was no unit meeting in January, a special executive board meeting was held by President Sheila DeNunzio to select a nominating committee for presentation of a slate of officers for the 1972-73 school year.

Nominating committee members include Jerry Reinecke, Simone Mendoza, Lorna Neuhaus, Carol Gardner, and Cornelius. Any Mt. Vernon PTA member interested in being on the committee should contact Cornelius by Feb. 4.

Rancho School

The Rancho School Parent-Teacher Association announced last week that a bus tour of Hollywood, including an appearance on the TV game show "Hollywood Squares", will be held for members and friends tomorrow.

The Golden Avenue Elementary School Parent-Teacher Association will meet next Thursday morning in the school cafeteria, with a coffee at 9:15 a.m., to be followed by the business meeting at 9:30 a.m.

Following the business meeting, PTA members will have an opportunity to enjoy a demonstration by Barbara Jones, home economist with the San Diego Gas and Electric Company.

Adams Wins Judges' Award

Geoffrey Adams, faculty member at Mt. Miguel High School, won the Judges' Award for the 6th Annual One-Act Play Tournament held January 14-15 in Mayan Hall at Southwestern College.

Nine one-act plays were presented: "Hello Out There", "Bugs", "The Informer", "I Rise In Flame Cried The Phoenix", "Memorial Day", "Tale of Chelm", in which Adams was casted, "The Interview", "Passion, Poison, and Perfection", and "Apples in the Hold."

Mendela, the part portrayed by Adams, was a book peddler.

Adams had been particularly interested in meeting young students of the theatre and finding out what is being done in college theatre. His interest led him to enroll as a student of theatre art at Southwestern College.

Thirty-seven other actors were in competition for the Judges' Award. Many other awards were given for the best leading actor, best supporting actress, best minor actor, etc. The award was presented to Adams at the conclusion of the tournament.

Supermarkets take in $40 million worth of bad checks a year.

ACTOR WINS AWARD — Geoffrey Adams, a teacher at Mt. Miguel High School doesn't look like this during classes. Eighth Straight Loss

Monte Vista Stopped By Grossmont, Sults

By Tom Blattler

With center Ralph Drollinger back in the lineup, the Grossmont Foothillers remained undefeated in the Grossmont League as they ripped the winless Monte Vista Monarchs, 70-51, at the Foothillers' gym.

Drollinger, a 7-foot senior, had been suffering from the flu, which kept him out of the Grossmont lineup against El Cajon for two and one-half quarters. But against the Monarchs, Ralph threw in a game high 31 points while letting the backup center take over the entire fourth stanza. Drollinger was also the leading rebounder in the contest with 20 caroms.

The top scorer for Monte

Vista was senior forward Carl Zemlick with 27 points. Zemlick scored 15 of those points in the final period before fouling out.

The Foothillers did an excellent defensive job against junior Rick Baker as Baker had only five markers. It was only the third time this season that Baker was held under 10 points in 19 contests.

The Foothillers took the early lead as they played fine team defense in holding the Monarchs to eight. Grossmont, though, scored 15 in the period.

Grossmont then started to feed the ball to Drollinger, and the Monarchs could not stop the seven-footer. The Foothillers had extended their lead to 15, 33-18, at intermission.

The Foothillers came out in the second half red hot, and blew the Monarchs out of the gym. Drollinger again led the Grossmont attack with help from senior forward Bob Gunderson. The score stood at 59-30 going into the final period.

The final stanza was saved for the reserves as Monte Vista made the score more respectable. The Monarchs outscored the Foothillers, 21-11, in the quarter.

The Santana Sultans, led by seniors Geoff Hinkle and Henry Arviso, stopped the hapless Monarchs, 63-57, last Thursday night on the winners' court.

Hinkle, a 6-foot guard, pumped in 24 points on nine field goals and six of seven from the charity line. Arviso, a 6-foot-3 forward, hit the score book 21 times as he threw in nine field goals and was three for three from the free throw line.

Since Hinkle's toe injury, Arviso has had to score more for the Sultans to win. Henry is averaging over 17 points per contest in Grossmont League competition after throwing in 12 per game in non-league play.

The leading scorer for the Monarchs was 6-foot-4 forward, Carl Zemlick, who carried 22 points. Zemlick has poured in 132 points in his last six contests for a 22 point average.

Monte Vista showed some excellent youth in the game in sophomores Richard Ridgway and Bill Bunting. Ridgway threw in nine points and showed some fine ballhandling and quarterbacking of his team. Bunting had only three points, but hit the boards very hard.

Monte Vista now must play the El Capitan Vaqueros tomorrow night in the Vaqueros gym. The contest will start at 8 p.m. El Cap is led by senior big men, Dan Schmidt and David Ross, who both averaged over 20 points per game.

'Hiller-Helix Hoop Affair Tops Schedule

By John Nicholson

The big question this week on the prep basketball circuit is whether or not Helix can knock off Grossmont tomorrow night. The answer to that question, along with other games and expected outcomes, follows:

Basketball

Helix at Grossmont, tomorrow at 8 p.m. The key to the game will hinge on how well the Highlander defense controls Grossmont's 7-footer Ralph Drollinger and how well Helix big man Gary Ely gets to the boards. The Helix speed should tell the tale here, and achieve a seven-point Helix win.

El Cajon at Santana, tomorrow at 8 p.m. Santana has been coming along in the last week or so, as super star Geoff Hinkle mends and Hank Arviso continues a hot shooting eye. El Cajon has looked much improved, but not enough to beat the Sults. Santana by four.

Monte Vista at El Cap, tomorrow at 8 p.m. Monte Vista, behind hot shooter Carl Zemlick, has become steadier in the past two weeks, but El Capitan has a size advantage that won't be beaten. El Cap by ten.

Mt. Miguel at Granite Hills, tomorrow at 8 p.m. Mt. Miguel has been plagued by injuries and illness and will not repeat its last victory over the Eagles. Granite Hills by 14.

El Cajon at El Cap, Tuesday, 4:30 p.m. El Cajon has come alive, but the Vaqueros shouldn't have any trouble. El Cap by 10.

Santana at Grossmont, Tuesday, 4:30 p.m. Grossmont should be the easy victor here, but look for a closer game than the Foothillers would like. Grossmont by five.

Granite Hills at Helix, Tuesday, 4:30 p.m. The Highland-

CHARGER TRADE — Running back Leon Burns, who was the San Diego Chargers' first round draft pick from Long Beach State, was traded this week, along with Cid Edwards and wide receiver Dave Williams. The Chargers, in trades this week, also gave up Jeff Staggs and several draft choices for Deacon Jones and two other players from the Los Angeles Rams.

Chargers Get Deacon Jones

S.D. Trades Burns, Staggs And Gillette

The San Diego Chargers this week sent two No. 1 draft picks and linebacker Jeff Staggs to other cities, while bringing in a running back, a wide receiver and the "living legend" of the Los Angeles Rams, Deacon Jones.

Leon Burns, Number 1 draft pick from Long Beach State, and Walker Gillette, who two years ago was the local team's first selection in the college draft, were traded to the St. Louis Cardinals for Cid Edwards, a more seasoned running back and wide receiver Dave Williams.

Burns, a running back, as a rookie rushed for 223 yards, while Edwards in four years with the Cards rushed for 1,384. Gillette in two seasons caught passes for 168 yards while Williams has caught for 2,335 yards in five terms.

The move, similar to those made last year by Redskins coach George Allen, who traded away young talent and draft choices for experienced players, was obviously aimed at making the Chargers an AFC championship threat next year. The Chargers have traditionally finished in third place in their division, behind Kansas City and Oakland.

In a more spectacular trade, the Chargers received Los Angeles great Deacon Jones

Art Mart Planned

The San Diego County Art Mart Association will hold a show and sale of paintings and crafts Saturday and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Park Blvd. and President way in Balboa Park.

A special attraction of the art mart will be demonstrations both days at 2 p.m. by the renowned artist San Pedro. Admission is free and all articles on display will be for sale.

Local artists who will display works include Emily Austin, Jim and Helen Goodall, H. E. Craddock, Nell Smith, Hamilton Stalnacher, Charles Kastringer, Robert Landry, Buelah Greenlee, and Amy O'Toole.

Record Holding Speedsters Compete in S.D. Indoor Games

Co-world 60-meter high hurdle record holder Thomas Hill will pace the field of entries in the 60-yard hurdle event while newly-crowned American indoor high jump record holder Renaldo Brown will headline the high jump competition Feb. 19 at the San Diego Indoor Games at the S.D. Arena.

Meet Director Tony Susac said, "Brown is the hottest high jumper in the world right now."

Brown, competing for the California International Track Club, broke the American indoor mark of 7.3 by John Rambo (49er Track Club, 1967) and John Thomas (Boston University, 1961) with a leap of 7.4 earlier this month at the National Invitation Indoor Championships in Maryland. He came within a whisker of Valeriy Brumel's world record of 7.4.

He is unbeaten in three indoor meets thus far.

Last season was probably his most outstanding as he won the NCAA College Division and University Division titles with meet record jumps of 7-1½ and 7-3, respectively. He came back a few days later to make a clean sweep by winning the AAU crown at 7-3.

His AAU win qualified him for places on the national team against the USSR and World All-Stars, Africa and the Pan American Games. He competed only in the Russian meet and placed second in 7-3 to Pat Matzdorf's world record leap of 7-6¼.

Hill tied the 60 meter high hurdle world mark of 7.5 by tying with West Germany's Gunther Nickel in an international meet in Berlin in 1970. His time ranks as the American record for that event and he also owns the American mark for the indoor 120-yard high hurdles in 13.6.

A senior at Arkansas State University, he missed the 1971 season with a bad right knee sustained in a fall in mid-December 1970.

Hill didn't begin hurdling until he entered Arkansas State. However, he quickly made up for lost time. As a sophomore in the 1969-70 season he won the NCAA 60-yard indoor high hurdles in a still meet record time of 6.9 and placed fifth in the NCAA 120-yard high hurdles in the summer. Hill then surprised everyone by winning the 1970 AAU title in 13.3 and the USTFF title in a then co-world record time of 13.2.

Trojans, Trotters Top S.V. Girls Hoop Play

The opening games of the season left two teams with undefeated records in the Spring Valley Recreation Department's Girls Basketball League.

Leading the A league by a full game with a 3-0 record are the Trojans, led by Roxanne Wallace and Cindy Shepersky, averaging 15 and 9 points per game respectively.

In the B league, it's the Gold Trotters on top with a 4-0 mark, a game ahead of the 3-1 Red Barons. Laurie Jarman is the "Trotters' top scorer, averaging five points per contest.

In a league action, the Trojans topped D.D.T., 28-22, as Roxxy Wallace tossed in 21 points. Roxxy added 17 tallies in the next game for the Trojans, a 48-13 stomping of the Hot Stompers. Cindy Shepersky was the top scorer for the Trojans in the third contest, a 31-9 whipping of the Mean Green.

Other A league action saw the Blue Blazers and D.D.T. win a pair of games each while dropping one to tie for second place with identical 2-1 marks.

The Blazers knocked off the Mean Green, 32-21 and the Hot Stompers, 24-23, while losing to D.D.T., 30-21. In addition to its decision over the Blazers and its loss to the Trojans,

Griffins Eye Championship

It was a year ago when the Grossmont Griffins and Riverside City College finished in a tie for the Mission Conference wrestling championship.

The year has passed and the Griffins are still tied for first place only this time it is with the San Bernardino Valley College Indians.

Both San Bernardino and the Griffins sport 4-0 conference records and the championship could be decided in two weeks when the two teams get together at Grossmont.

Meanwhile the two teams scored victories Friday night with the Griffins coasting past the Chaffey Panthers, 33-12, while San Berdo nudged Riverside by a 22-19 margin.

This week the Griffins will travel to Southwestern Friday night in an attempt at winning their 10th straight conference dual match over the past two years.

Mt. Miguel Loses Coach, Two Games

By Paul Stark

Mount Miguel High School lost their coach last week to the flu and also lost to El Capitan, 91-67, last Tuesday and to El Cajon, 73-47, last Thursday running their losing streak to four games.

Both games were won on the battle of rebounds. In the El Cap game the Vaqueros outrebounded the Matadors 50-29 and in the El Cajon game the Braves had the edge 49-26.

In the first quarter, the Vaqueros scored 14 straight points when Dave Ross erased a 5-4 lead when he sank a 10-foot jump shot. When the dust settled the Vaqueros had an 18-5 lead and went on to lead 30-15 going into the second quarter.

The Vaqueros in the second quarter continued to score on the Matadors' porous defense. The Vaqueros outscored the Matadors 22-14 to take a 52-29 lead at halftime.

In the third quarter, the Vaqueros, on the shooting and defensive work of Dan Schmidt, outscored the Matadors 25-18. Schmidt scored 10 points and pulled seven rebounds in the quarter as they took a 77-47 lead going into the final stanza.

Halfway through the final stanza, with the game's outcome not in question, both the Vags and Matadors flooded the floor with reserves. The Matadors outscored the Vaqueros 20-14 with Mark Dobransky scoring nine points in the period.

Dan Schmidt led the scoring attack for the Vaqueros with 29 points. Schmidt was the games top rebounder with 16 caroms. Dave Ross scored 25 points and Don Sutton added 12 points. Mark Dobransky scored 26 points to lead the scoring attack for the Matadors.

On Thursday, the first quarter was pretty much of a seesaw battle as the Braves, hitting from the outside, held a 16-15 lead going into the second quarter.

In the next quarter, the Braves took advantage of some poor defensive play by the Matadors to take a 36-30 halftime lead.

The Braves in the third period broke the game wide open, as they continued to hit outside shots, to outscore the Matadors 19-8 and take a 55-39 lead into the last stanza.

In the last eight minutes the Braves continued to blow the Matadors out of the gym as they outscored the local team, 18-9. Midway through the quarter the Braves flooded the floor with reserves when the game was no longer in doubt.

Tomorrow night the Matadors will see more league action when they travel to Granite Hills for a game with the Eagles at 8 p.m. Earlier in the year the Matadors took an 82-67 decision from the Eagles.

New Reading System Developed By SD&E

A new system for automatically reading apartment house electric meters from a remote location has been put into operation by San Diego Gas & Electric Company.

Called "Instant Read," the new system is being used to read meters at the 150-unit Coronado Shores Condominium Apartment Building in Coronado from the utility's electric meter shop in San Diego across the bay.

"Instant Read" enables the utility to read the meters at any time by merely dialing the proper telephone number and then sending a coded teletype message over the line to equipment in the apartment complex.

Padres Sign Clay Kirby; List Six Practice Games

Clay Kirby, whose 15 victories in 1971 was the most wins ever achieved by a Padre pitcher in one season, has agreed to terms for 1972 it was announced by general manager Eddie Leishman.

The 23-year-old right-hander, who already has 32 major league victories to his credit, last year was one of only four National League pitchers to strike out more than 200 batters.

His 231 strikeouts gave him a three-year major league total of 498 and his last season's earned run average of 2.83 ranked him tenth in the league.

"He could become a 20-game winner this season," Padre pitching coach Roger Craig said of Kirby. "The key will be his start. If he gets off well, there's no limit on how many games he will win."

Kirby was 0-3 through the first week of May last year but he finished with a flourish to post a 15-13 mark. His last four games were classics and, over 43 innings he permitted only 5 earned runs.

But even more spectacular was Kirby's back-to-back flailing with a no-hitter.

He was working on a no-hitter with one out in the eighth inning against Houston before allowing a hit. Then he came right back to blank San Francisco through seven innings before Willie McCovey homered to open the eighth.

Kirby also owns the Padre single game strikeout record, 13, set against the Mets last season.

The Padres also announced the signing of reserve catcher Ron Slocum and rookie outfielder Randy Elliott. That brings to 13 the number of Padres signed for 1972.

The Padres have scheduled six practice games this month for players participating in the pre-spring training instructional camp.

The games will be against area colleges.

The schedule:

February 8 vs. San Diego Mesa College at Mesa College

February 10 vs. San Diego State at State

February 11 vs. San Diego State at State

February 14 vs. San Diego Mesa College at Mesa College

February 16 vs. San Diego State at State

February 17 vs. University of San Diego at Mesa College

All games will start at 2 p.m.

LONG LINE — Tomorrow is the deadline for registering automobiles with the Department of Motor Vehicles, and those who have yet to do so are in for a long wait at DMV offices all over the state, according to DMV Director Robert C. Cozens. Beating the rush via the mails is one solution to the problem, but only if renewal forms are uncomplicated. Mailed in renewals may be sent to any office of the DMV, Cozens said. Delinquent registrations are subject to late fees. (Mark Coffin photo)

The Civic Youth Orchestra will be Dr. Emile's third conducting assignment of the day. At 10 a.m. and noon, he will be conducting the San Diego Symphony Orchestra in a Young People's Concert program with excerpts from Kodaly's Hary Janos Suite; Stravinsky's Firebird Suite; Thomson's Acadian Songs and Dances; and Shuman's Chester.

Computerized Car Pools Scheduled

In an effort to reduce air pollution and ease overcrowded parking lots at Grossmont College, the Ecology Workshop and the Friends in Liberty Association, will join forces to provide a computerized car pool for students enrolled at Grossmont College during the spring semester.

Members of the two campus organizations will hand out computer punch cards during the registration process, starting Tuesday. The cards will be coded by geographical location and class schedule so that cards filled out by those who can provide transportation may be matched with cards of students who need transportation.

According to Mrs. Gail Lusk, president of FLA, members of the two organizations will be present during registration to assist students in filling out the cards.

Upon the completion of registration, the cards will be fed into the computer by William D. Tester, instructor in the college computer lab. Printouts from the computer will be published.

Detection Of Tumors Is Aim Of Experiments

A test to detect pre-malignant changes in developing tumors is being perfected at the University of California, San Diego School of Medicine. Stewart Sell, M.D., and associate professor of pathology, is refining assay techniques to detect and quantify a specific protein whose appearance in adult blood serum corresponds to the presence of certain cancerous tumors.

The protein is known as alpha fetoprotein and is normally found only in the blood serum of the developing fetus. However, with the development of some malignant growths, mainly cancer of the liver, alpha fetoprotein is again evident in the blood.

New Land Clearing Method To Save Up To $1,040 Per Acre

A new technique developed by San Diego County for clearing land may save as much as $175 to $1,040 per acre, depending on whether it's eliminating light brush or heavy growth.

Land clearing used to be done by hand, in 20-man crews. A cost scale showed expense running from $225 per acre for light brush to $1,100 per acre for heavy brush. This was using prison labor.

Using a pair of 90-foot standard Navy anchor chains linked together, strung between two big Caterpillar tractors, and modified with steel crossbars, the County has dropped that cost to approximately $50 per acre for light brush and $60 per acre for heavy brush. Working in heavy brush on Manzanita Indian Reservation recently, the technique cleared 300 acres in 10 working days.

San Diego County's Agriculture Department has several of these sets of Navy anchor chains, but only the two which were joined for the Manzanita operation have been modified with crossbars. The links themselves weigh 90 pounds each; the crossbars add another 10 pounds. In all, the two tractors pull approximately nine tons of steel across the ground to be cleared at the "breakbush" speed of 5 mph.

County agriculture specialist Roy Kepner said the 18 inch crossbars, an inch and an eighth thick and four inches wide, dig their square ends into the earth setting up a walking, twisting action in the anchor chain.

Said Kepner, "If the Cats move too slowly, the chain won't walk. It'll slide over everything. Same thing if the Cats go too fast. Operators have to keep just the right speed; then it'll rip everything out of its way."

Popular Classes Start

Classes in archeology will be conducted, by the wife of a Lemon Grove physician-surgeon at Hoover High school on Wednesdays at 7 p.m. and classes in anthropology will be at Jewish Community Center on Fridays at 9 a.m.

The teacher, Mrs. Gilbert Chassy, taught the same subjects last year and they proved to be interesting and popular.

In archeology there will be interpretation and analysis of prehistoric material. In anthropology study will concern evolution of man from his prehistoric relatives.

In both courses there will be trips to the zoo, the Museum of Man, and to an archeological site in San Diego.

Primarily the Manzanita land clearance was a fire safety feature. Eventually 1,000 acres will be cleared to create an international fire break between United States and Mexico. The Manzanita high desert area between Jamul and Pine Valley becomes a huge tinderbox under boiling sun. Rainfall is less than two inches yearly.

When land clearing is completed, a 12-mile-long fire break will exist. In some places it will be a quarter-mile wide. At its narrowest, the fire break will be a thousand feet wide. But land clearance cuts what Kepner termed "the fuel load per acre" — the brush

Two Appointed To Scripps Fund Program

Two prominent San Diegoans have accepted key appointments in the Scripps Clinic and Research Foundation's $25 million capital fund program. The announcement was made at a meeting of SCRF's Board of Trustees by Thomas M. Hamilton, Esq., chairman of the program's steering committee.

According to Hamilton, Ellis T. Gravette, Jr., president of Palomar Financial, will chair the important Special Gifts Solicitation Committee. Hamilton said that Mrs. A. Richard Stern, of Coronado, will serve as the committee's vice chairman.

Both Gravette and Mrs. Stern are active members of the San Diego community. In addition to his seven-year leadership of Palomar Financial, Gravette serves as president and trustee of Palomar Mortgage Investors, a locally based real estate investment trust, and has been associated with San Diego's Economic Development Corporation.

He also is on the boards of Intermark, Inc., a La Jolla investment company; the Nevada State Bank, Las Vegas; and Standard Life and Accident Insurance Company, Oklahoma City, Okla.

Mrs. Stern has been prominent in cultural and civic activities throughout the county. She is active especially in San Diego health sciences, having served on the board and executive committee of the Hospital and Health Facilities Planning Commission, forerunner of the Comprehensive Health Planning Association of San Diego and Imperial Counties.

Lockwood Gets Post At UCSD Medicine School

The appointment of Richard A. Lockwood, M.D., as Associate Dean for Continuing Education and Health Manpower at the University of California, San Diego School of Medicine has been announced by Clifford Grobstein, Dean and Vice Chancellor for Health Sciences.

Under the direction of Dr. Lockwood, the newly established Office of Continuing Education will develop and coordinate training programs for all persons in the health care field.

In announcing the appointment, Dean Grobstein said, "Dr. Lockwood is well qualified by background and interest to undertake this important assignment. Health manpower and especially its continuing education are essential to meet growing health care needs. The UCSD School of Medicine hopes to play its appropriate roles, along with other educational and health institutions, in assuring well trained health personnel for the San Diego Community."

Continuing education is recognized by the UCSD School of Medicine as a high priority item for allied health professionals as well as for nurses and physicians. Dr. Lockwood explained.

"We want to devise programs that are both convenient to the medical community and sound educationally. Our emphasis will be on programs that underscore the team approach to health care delivery. This approach entails a coordinated involvement of physicians, nurses, and allied health professionals in patient care," he continued.

A variety of specialized courses, conferences, seminars, and hospital-based programs will be offered by Continuing Education.

Dr. Lockwood joined the UCSD School of Medicine faculty in 1966.

Ecology Corps Raise Planned

The monthly pay for members of the California Ecology Corps will increase to a minimum of $100 effective July 1.

Corpsmen serving with the state's unique environmental protection force have retired $40 monthly since the program was launched last summer by Governor Reagan.

Additional money for the pay increase will be provided by an increase in the man-day charge the State Department of Conservation assesses other governmental agencies which contract for corpsmen services.

The department currently contracts with the State Departments of Fish and Game, Parks and Recreation and with the U.S. Departments of the Interior and Agriculture. Corpsmen, while performing conservation-related work projects for the contract agencies, are also available for emergency services such as forest fire-fighting and search and rescue missions.

Museum Expands

The Museum of Man's "Wonder of Life" feature is growing from "The First Breath of Life" to man's fifth year with the opening of the permanent exhibit's first major expansion.

Located in the Balboa Park Institution's south annex, "The First Five Years" section will detail physical and sensory development through the use of models, skeletal series and electronics.

"This addition," acting museum managing director Dr. Spencer Rogers said, "represents the initial step toward presenting the full cycle of man's life, from conception through maturity and the process of aging."

"The First Five Years," Dr. Rogers said, "will include bone-growth panel displays as well as a graphic comparison of an infant's physical proportions with those of an adult."

Large eye and ear models, in addition to a three-minute audio tape, will be used to describe the development of sight and hearing, with a pulsating light series representing connections to the brain.

Woman's Club Meets

The Lemon Grove Woman's Club Juniors will hold its board meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. Thomas Perry, 1313 Resmar rd., La Mesa.

Stanley Myron Handelman Due At Southwestern

The spring segment of Southwestern College's Artist Lecture Series will begin February 16 with fast rising T.V. comedian, Stanley Myron Handelman. This horn-rimmed, bespectacled young man, with the warm smile and soft delivery has appeared on the Dean Martin and Merv Griffin Shows and several other T.V. shows. Handelman will be replacing Joanne Worley in the series, due to a conflict in Miss Worley's schedule which forced her to cancel her appearance.

On February 28, James Fields, a Leventritt Foundation concert pianist and winner of many international awards, will be the featured guest artist. He is currently in a concert tour of the United States.

Tuesday, March 7, Sam Hinton, local folk singer, will present a concert in Mayan Hall at 11 a.m. Hinton has performed throughout the United States and is a regular guest at colleges and universities, and always presents a unique and professional show.

Next, Alex Haley, internationally known lecturer, world traveler and author of the best seller "Autobiography of Malcolm X" will speak on "Black Heritage" March 22 in Mayan Hall at 8 p.m. Haley is in the closing stages of writing a new book "Before This Age," to be published this year in 14 language translations. Columbia pictures has already negotiated for the film rights to this book.

Concluding the series at Southwestern will be Marian Ash, a constant and vigorous crusader for equal rights for women and for greater involvement by women in political and governmental affairs. Mrs. Ash is scheduled to appear May 16 at 11 a.m. and 8 p.m.

For information regarding season tickets for the series or ticket information for any of the individual guest appearances, call the Community Services Office at Southwestern College, 420-1080, Ext. 265.

Rotary Meeting Set

The weekly luncheon-meeting of the Spring Valley Rotary Club, will be Friday at 12:10 p.m. in the Ox Bow Inn, Campo rd., in the Casa de Oro area of Spring Valley. All Rotarians are welcome, said president Bob Brady.

Member, Rev. Lewis Ginn, will introduce the guest speaker, Ivor Powell, a world traveler and speaker, who is an author and publisher, as well as a missionary.

BEFORE — A dollar-saver in action is this Navy standard anchor chain converted to a brush clearing machine. On the verge of chewing its way through growth on the Manzanita Indian Reservation, the 90-pound links pick up a glint from the sun. To the links have been added crossbars of tempered steel salvaged from bulldozer blades and road graders, adding about 10 pounds apiece. Two 90-foot lengths of chain strung between two Caterpillar tractors put more than nine tons of steel into play to uproot plants.

AFTER — Part of the 300 acres cleared in 10 days by the towed anchor chain show as a backdrop for the representatives of three government agencies interested in the operation. Roy Kepner, left, of El Cajon, a specialist of the County Division of Natural Resources; Glenn Ehrlich of Riverside, agency forester for five counties in juris-dition of the Department of Interior Bureau of Indian Affairs; and Bob Mullen of San Diego, farm advisor for the University of California Extension Service stationed with the County. They are studying the aftermath of the twisting action of the chain which shows the roots and trunks of small trees and brush entwined in the links.

Planetarium Lectures Draw Evening Crowds

The weekly planetarium lectures at Southwestern College continue to draw capacity crowds, according to Richard Marasso, Planetarium Director.

The free evening lectures are presented by Jon Olson, Assistant Planetarium Director, for each Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the planetarium on the Southwestern campus.

The topic for the February lectures will be "Apollo to Andromeda" which will cover man's progress in the space program. The dimensions of the visible universe will be discussed and speculation on the future possibility of travel to distant planets, stars and galaxies.

The lectures are presented as a free community service, although reservations are required due to the limited seating capacity in the planetarium. Reservations may be made through the Community Services Office at Southwestern College.
